

WILDLIFE LEGAL HELP CENTER

Freeland India's Wildlife Legal Help Centre (WLHC) offers assistance to enforcement officers and public prosecutors investigating or prosecuting wildlife crime cases across India.

- Wildlife law advice for enforcement officers and public prosecutors dealing with wildlife crime cases.
- Queries can be sent by email or by calling the WLHC's all-India toll-free number.
- A panel of experts on topics covering wildlife and forests will address queries via the WLHC.
- All queries will be attended to in a timely manner.
- The WLHC may keep records of queries, for generating statistical reports and/or maps.
- The WLHC is unable to offer legal advice on personal or service issues.

Freeland India envisions a world free of wildlife trafficking and human slavery. In India, we are:

- Offering wildlife law advice and information support to law enforcement officers.
- Offering training on wildlife crime investigations and anti-poaching practices.
- Facilitating transfer of information, between government agencies, on important wildlife cases.
- Maintaining a collation of open-source information on wildlife trafficking cases.
